The Veen Firm Named to 2027 Best Law Firms for Personal Injury and Product Liability Litigation in San Francisco

Ranking follows a year of major results for the San Francisco plaintiff firm, including a $29 million medical malpractice recovery

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, November 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ — The Veen Firm, LLP, a San Francisco law firm that represents people and families after serious injury, has been recognized in San Francisco for Personal Injury Litigation – Plaintiffs and Product Liability Litigation – Plaintiffs in the 2027 edition of Best Law Firms®. Both are regional rankings, and they continue the firm's record of recognition in these practice areas.

Best Law Firms rankings draw on feedback from clients and professional references, peer votes from other lawyers, and interviews with industry leaders. A firm becomes eligible once at least one of its lawyers is named to The Best Lawyers in America®. Veen Firm partners Theo J. Emison, Steven A. Kronenberg and Anthony L. Label were each named to the 2027 edition. Emison and Kronenberg are recognized for Personal Injury Litigation – Plaintiffs, and Label is recognized for both Personal Injury Litigation – Plaintiffs and Product Liability Litigation – Plaintiffs. Emison has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America since 2014, Label since 2015 and Kronenberg since 2021.

The Veen Firm works with catastrophic personal injury, wrongful death and product liability cases, along with other practice areas. Earlier this year, partner Theo Emison resolved a medical malpractice case for $29 million. Based on the firm's research, it is the largest known recovery in a California case involving only medical malpractice claims governed by MICRA.

The firm thanks the clients, colleagues and referring attorneys who shared their experience with Best Law Firms, and congratulates the other firms recognized in this year's edition.
